Known Actor, in Motion Pictures. The Davis theatre for Wednesday and Thursday has a most interesting and exceedingly strong programme that will mean a continuance of the big crowds that are flooking there these days. Heading the bill is Wanted by the Police, a thrilling three reel drama with the leading role played by William Jenerson, the well known actor, son of the late Joseph Jefferson. The story is woven around a beautiful young stenographer who gets into the clutches of a woundrelly white slave dealer and while struggling to escape from him she accidentally kills himller httle brother helps her to escape, and a nervy telegraph operator, in love w.h the girl and loved by her, plays an important part in her escape. A teksrapt office in full operation, the barning out of the wires, a realistic rail cad station, the hair-raising escare, holding on to the cowcatcher of a bigh speed engine, and the thrilling clase between two gigantic express engines going at a mile a minute clip are some of the featuree that make this the most exciting dramatic feature of the year. Kentucky Foes, a powerful story of a policeman's honesty and bravery, even when forced to punish his own idelized son, is a drama well Hero is an indescribably funny new Keystone comedy, and the latest Mucomplete the programme.

Her ane husband has white fingers, Her are husband has white ingers,
Mine has not;
He could give his bride a palace—
Mine a cot;
Hers comes home beneath the starlight.
Ne'er cares she;
Mine comes in the purple twilight,
Klases me,
And prays that He who turns life's

Will hold His loyed ones in His hands. Will hold His loved ones in His hands.

Mrs. Lofty has her jewels, So have I;
She wears hers upon her bosom—
Inside I;
She will leave hers at death's portal,
By-and-by;
I shall bear my treasure with me
When I die;
For I have love and she bas gold;
She counts her wealth—mine can't be

she has those who love her station, She has those who love her station,
None have I;
But I've one true heart beside me—
Glad am I;
I'd not change it for a kingdom,
No. net I;
Ged will weigh it in His balance,
By-and-by;
And the difference define
"Twirt Mrs. Lefty's wealth and mi Twixt Mrs. Lofty's wealth and mine.
